The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT PROTECTING AND IMPROVING THE EMERGENCY AID TO THE ELDERLY, DISABLED AND CHILDREN (EAEDC) PROGRAM.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1: Section 1 of chapter 117A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006
Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following words:-

A person who is eligible for assistance under the provisions of this chapter, and who is maintaining his or her own home, shall receive monthly benefits no less than the payment standard in effect in fiscal year 2009. The Department is further authorized and directed, subject to appropriation, to increase said payment standard through an annual cost of living adjustment until said payment standard is equal to the same amount of benefits otherwise provided to an assistance unit of the same size eligible under chapter one hundred and eighteen of the general laws.

SECTION 2: Said chapter 117A, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting after section 10 the following section:-

Section 11: Representation to secure federal disability benefits

13 To maximize the receipt of federal benefits and to maximize reimbursement of interim 14 assistance paid by the Commonwealth under this chapter, the Department shall implement a 15 program to provide legal advice and representation to disabled recipients in order for said
16 recipients to secure Supplemental Security Income benefits administered by the Social Security 17 Administration.

18 SECTION 3: Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, in determining 19 eligibility for the program of emergency aid to elders, disabled and children under chapter 117A
20 of the General Laws, the department of transitional assistance shall provide benefits to persons 21 under age 21 who are regularly attending a full time grade school, high school, technical or 22 vocational school not beyond the secondary level, and who the department determines are 23 homeless or in immigrant risk of becoming homeless or are otherwise considered 24 unaccompanied youth as defined by the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education in 25 accordance with federal law. Such students must meet other generally applicable eligibility 26 requirements for the program and the income of assets of any legally liable persons who live 27 with said student shall be considered in determining the financial eligibility for benefits under 28 this chapter.
